Message from Co-Presidents

July proved to be a great month for our club. We registered 6 new members at the Open House, had the largest group ever for Game Night with 22 ladies, and had 20 ladies gather for Lunch Bunch.

As we wind down for Summer 2021, our board is preparing for a fun packed year to come. We will start off with our Annual Fashion Show (sponsored by Chico's) on a new date—Tuesday, Sept 21st. Open call for models will go out at the end of August.

Servant's Heart has approached us about filling 7 backpacks for children in 7th grade who attend Northeast Middle School. Thanks to all those who responded so quickly. We will have several more opportunities for everyone to participate. They are also in need of volunteers interested in working the register in the boutique. Anyone interested should Contact Billie McIntosh at (704)680-6533 ext. 3 or email cb@servantsheart.org.

As of now, 44 member have paid their 2021-22 Dues. Please consider sending a check or pay online, prior to the September meeting ,so you can be entered into the wine class for 20 raffle. More importantly we can close registration and work on putting our directory together earlier.

We hope all of you continue to enjoy your Summer and look forward to seeing everyone in Sept.

LUNCH BUNCH and Game Nights

Monday, July 12th, 22 members gathered in the Town Hall flex room to hone their game skills as well as enjoy the fellowship, laughter, and refreshments. New friendships were made, old ones renewed, and fun had by all.

We also had 6 new ladies sign up to be members. So far this season, 10 new ladies have joined our club.

On Friday, July 16th, the Summer Coordinators, Ginnie Freeburn and Suzanne Maddox, arranged our lunch bunch at Angela's Italian Restaurant. The food and fellowship were terrific. Like all other service establishments, help is still a struggle to find, but the upside of that is it gave us more time to catch up with friends and explore new relationships.
